1. Bismarck Kaserne on Weissenfelder Strasse, Naumburg (M 52/J 89):

a. The following service colors and insignia were observed, listed in the order of their frequency:

Red-bordered black epaulets with artillery insignia

Black-bordered black epaulets with signal and engineer insignia

Dark-blue-bordered-black epaulets with motor transport insignia.

b. The barracks are said to be occupied as follows:

(1) Division headquarters or elements of it (headquarters elements seem also to be located on Luxemburgstrasse, near the barracks, and others in the street triangle formed by Jakobsring, Kollwitzstrasse and Friedenstrasse. Intensive traffic of officers and passenger cars, also telephone lines, were observed between the three mentioned localities).

(2) AA artillery unit with red-bordered black epaulets and artillery insignia.

(3) Small signal unit, presumably an element of the signal unit quartered on Breitscheitstrasse.

[REDACTED] Comments:

a. General:

The billeting area of the 57th Mtz Rifle Div includes the military posts of Naumburg, Weissenfels and Getha. Most of the component units of the division are assumed to be stationed in Naumburg and Weissenfels; some small units are believed stationed in Gotha. Recent information from Naumburg and Weissenfels was based on the [REDACTED]. Information on the Gotha military post was so scarce that no definite data on the occupation of that town are available. It is assumed that the 172d Gds Mtz Rifle Regt, which was confirmed in Gotha by a deserter in the Summer of 1949, may have been transferred to Naumburg during the Winter of 1949/1950. The vacant quarters in Gotha were probably occupied by Volkspolizei.

b. Troops in Naumburg.

The detailed information which covers a long period of time and which is considered credible because of source's usual reliability, indicates that the following headquarters and units are stationed in Naumburg:

(1) Hq XXIX Gds Mtz Rifle Corps in the Oberlandesgericht and the Ross Hotel.

(2) 27th Gds Sig Bn/XXIX Gds Mtz Rifle Corps in the Barbara Kaserne.

(3) Hq 57th Gds Mtz Rifle Div in the Bismarck Kaserne.

It appears possible that other elements of the headquarters may be in buildings on the mentioned streets.

(4) Two rifle regiments (170th and 172d Gds Mtz Rifle Regts) in the Hindenburg Kaserne and in one of the two barracks north and south on Flemminger Weg.

(5) Other elements of the division (artillery unit (655th How Arty Regt ?) and ? No. Engr En and ? No. AAA Bn of the 57th Gds Mtz Rifle Div) in the northern barracks on Flemminger Weg and in the former ordnance depot, which was reported for the first time to be occupied.

(6) 89th Gds Sig Bn/57th Gds Mtz Rifle Div in the MG Kaserne on Nordstrasse. The signal unit in the Bismarck Kaserne is believed to belong to the signal battalion in the MG Kaserne (elements of the division signal battalion at the division headquarters) rather than to the signal battalion in the Barbara Kaserne on Breitscheitstrasse.
